Sheriff Urges Chimney, Furnace Checks For Safety

by Joe Schrader

Check your chimneys for possible obstructions and have your furnace checked before winter sets in by a qualified contractor, Crawford County Sheriff Joe White urges.

The warning comes on the heels of a recent near tragedy in Grayling where three members of a family narrowly escaped serious injury when carbon monoxide was released into their residence because of a cracked furnace heat exchanger. "Chimneys and furnaces are unused during the summer months and should be checked for safety before winter sets in, White urged.

The Sheriff's Dept. is investigating a Sunday incident in which vehicles at Camp Grayling were damaged with estimates exceeding $400. Military authorities are assisting in the investigation of the incident in which a number of windshields on parked vehicles were shot out.

Authorities are also investigating recent incidents of malicious destruction of mailboxes in the county where an explosive device was used. The device is a 3 to 4 inch pipe bomb that is highly dangerous. One such device has been found and has been turned over to the Michigan State Police Crime Lab for analysis. Persons who discover this type of explosive should not touch or tamper with it but call the Sheriff's Department immediately.

Sheriff's deputies responded to 65 other complaints during the past week. Eight breaking & enterings are being investigated, five car/deer accidents were reported and five personal damage accidents occurred.

Four DUI were reported, five malicious destruction of property incidents were reported, four larcenies were checked and one criminal sexual assault incident occurred.

Three Camp Showano walkways were picked up and a variety of complaints investigated. Four ambulance runs were made.

Kiwanis "Flowers For The Living"

On Tuesday, October 28 at 6:30 p.m. at the Chief Shoppenagong Hotel, the Grayling Kiwanis Club will hold its 1980 dedication of "Flowers for the Living". This presentation will recognize a living, deserving member of the Grayling Kiwanis Club for his accomplishments both within the Kiwanis and in the community.

The "Flowers for the Living" award was adopted by the Grayling Kiwanis Club from a practice used by the late Kiwanis District Secretary, Forney Clement of Ann Arbor. Clement, in his travels around the district, would bring a flower with him and present it to a deserving member, who could, in Mr. Clement's words, "enjoy it while he could still smell it."

The "Flowers for the Living" award has been presented 26 times in the last 41 years. Mr. Jack Alef was last year's recipient. Kiwanis members will have to wait until October 28th for this year's award winner.

What are Red Cross Safety Services?

by Harrison Goodhue

The Red Cross insignia is universally recognized as the badge of HELP in any physical or life saving emergency! It is the identifying mark on Ambulances, Emergency Vehicles, Hospitals, it is the badge of honor of every Safety and Life Saving Trainee, and it is recognized almost everywhere in this world of ours.

Did you ever wonder how it originated and how it came to mean what it does? In 1859 a Swiss businessman by the name of Henri Dunant was at Salferino, Italy on a visit, when that area became involved in a battle of the then war to unify the states of Italy. He was appalled at the total lack of care of the surviving wounded, military and civilians, by either side of the combatants. He determined to dedicate his life to creating a means to prevent such future horror. Four years later the Geneva Convention was signed by sixteen nations of Europe—the United States was not invited—and the International Society of the Red Cross was born. Red Cross to honor the Swiss founder. The Swiss flag is a white cross on a red field. The reverse—a red cross on a white field—became the universal symbol of the Red Cross!

It was not until a hundred years ago—in 1881—that the United States joined the International Society of the Red Cross and signed the Geneva Convention.

But ever since the Geneva Convention was first signed in 1864 the Red Cross has been the sign of relief and help to victims of war, natural disasters, and to our memories the universal identification of every form of life saving help and medical service.

When the Congress of the United States officially chartered the American Red Cross in 1905 it charged the organization with three responsibilities:

First, to render aid and assistance to the members of the Armed Forces, of the U.S., their Families and to Veterans, in times of Peace as well as War.

Second, to render immediate relief in the form of food, See Services on Page 12

Saints 'March' over Vikes, 13-6

by Joe Schrader

The Vikings slumbered through the first quarter of their Friday contest at St. Ignace and it was a long enough nap for the Saints to rack up just enough points to send Grayling reeling to its fifth straight loss in conference play. The final was 13-6 and left the Saints deadlocked with Boyne City for second place behind an awesome Cheboygan club that has run over five straight league foes so far this year.

The Viking record dropped to one win against six losses overall, 0-5 in conference action, bad enough for the basement position.

The Junior Vikes hosted St. Ignace on Thursday and also came out on the losing end, 6-0, dropping their record to 2-5 for the year.

"It took us nine minutes to realize we were in a ballgame," Head Coach Bill Klinger lamented on Saturday, "and St. Ignace came ready to play the first quarter." And that's all it took for St. Ignace to pile up a quick 13 points as quarterback

Tim Dahms tossed a pair of touchdown passes to end Bill Pope to give the Saints all they needed to run their league record to four wins against a single loss.

Dahm's first TD aerial to Pope was from seven yards out and capped an 81 yard drive that lopped over seven minutes off the clock following the opening kickoff. Call it 'bus lag' or whatever, the Vikes ran only three offensive plays the first

Harris Crestline Corp. To Open Plant Here

by Jon Thompson

Harris Crestline Corporation, a major manufacturer in the window industry, will open a new assembly plant in the West M-72 Professional and Industrial Plaza by late December of this year. Crestline expects to employ at least 30 persons at the new facility located in the 30, 450-foot steel warehouse formerly owned by Bear Archery. The Wausau, Wisconsin-based company will begin taking applications for jobs through the Michigan Employment Security Commission on December 1.

Edward S. Seim, Administrative

Vice-President of Crestline, said the Grayling site is the company's eighth manufacturing facility. Crestline has seven other assembly plants in Ladoga, Indiana; Corry, Pennsylvania; Mechanicville, New York; Leon, Iowa; Spokane, Washington, and Corning, California, besides a home plant in Wausau.

The Grayling plant will manufacture Crestline's complete line of wood windows, patio doors, and aluminum-clad products, and serve as a link between the seven other assembly plants as well as help supply Crestline products to the upper Midwest.

Is The Senior Citizens Center Worth Saving?

By Harrison Goodhue

I have received many telephone calls about the series of articles which have been appearing in The Avalanche about the Senior Citizens Center, all supportive, but some asked what other Counties have or are doing for their Seniors.

Well, actually, Crawford County does not have a true Senior Center building. The physical facilities of our Center are provided by the Grayling Housing Commission, but Cheboygan County just recently dedicated a brand new Senior Center made possible by a grant from the general revenue funds of the County of $165,000. Cheboygan has about twice as many people as Crawford.

While Crawford County Senior Citizen Center provided the funds for all three of their buses, and earns the money to operate them; Alpena, Montmorency, Osego, Oscoda, Presque Isle and Cheboygan Counties were given buses and operating funds for the buses from Federal Grants. Crawford County did not receive any funds for buses or money for operation of the buses, because we had already provided our own.

The "Penalty of Leadership" is frequently more than becoming the target for rock throwers because you have forged ahead of others; you usually are penalized financially as well because you had the courage and the will to go ahead and get the job done on your own!

Many counties in Northern Michigan provide operating funds for their Senior Citizens Program from a half to a full mill. The Commission on Aging believes that the outstanding job which has been achieved for our Seniors in Crawford County deserves at least the minimal support of a half mill, and are confident that the voters and the children and grandchildren of the Seniors of this community will not let them down.

I think I can speak frankly of the outstanding job achieved by the Crawford County Senior Citizens Center because no credit is due me. The accomplishments and achievements are the work of the Commissioners on Aging who preceded me on the Board.

You may not be aware that the Crawford County Senior Citizens Center is considered to be the most outstanding, by

CETA Funds Continued For County

Matt Bidvia, County Commissioner, today announced the continuation of CETA funds for Crawford County.

Bidvia is a member of the Northeast Michigan Manpower Consortium's Administrative Board which administers the funds for 8 counties in Northeast Michigan.

Kurt Ries, Director of the Consortium said that during the last fiscal year, which ended September 30, 1980, that Crawford County received over $910,000 in CETA funds.

The funds were used in classroom training, on-the-job training, public service employment, remedial math and reading classes, work experience, GED preparation, and employment skills training.

Bidvia commended the county office and other agencies who helped with placement of participants into unsubsidized employment in the Private and Public Sector.

Northeast Michigan Manpower Consortium maintains one of the highest placement rates of participants of all rural prime sponsors in the Nation. Congress is expected to vote on funding for Fiscal Year 1981 after they reconvene in November.

Bags Deer

Joe Smock, 13 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smock, bagged his first deer Thursday evening with a bow & arrow, but had to wait until Friday morning to track it. They were hunting in Crawford County.

HOLD OPEN HOUSE—The West M-72 Professional and Industrial Plaza hosted an Open House last Friday with Mayor Sandy Thompson and Jack B. Hull, manager of the Plaza, performing the ribbon-cutting ceremonies. Hull said 75 percent of the 128,000 square-foot former Bear Archery plant has been rented out to RDI (formerly I.P. Plastics), Crestline, Golden Rule, Miller-Christensen, a seismograph company, and other companies yet to be announced. (Jon Thompson Photo)

From Our Corner ...

Bear Archery's image is slowly leaving Grayling as its plant on M-72 has become the West M-72 Professional and Industrial Plaza and a new concept is taking place in this sprawling plant that once was home for Bear Archery and gave the identity to Grayling as the "Archery Capitol of the World" for some 40 years...

When the Archery moved out there was a void in Grayling that many felt couldn't be overcome...but now with time, which they say heals all wounds...their gigantic plant is once again in use...

Owners of the plaza is M-72 Associates, a part of Miller-Christensen of Grayling Realtors...it is announced this week that Harris Crestline Corporation is the newest plant to be moving into the plaza, and will employ some 30 persons...at present work is being done to house the Michigan State Liquor store.

These two additions join Golden Rule Printing, RDI Plastic, Seismograph and Miller-Christensen Realtor who have been located in the Plaza for some time.

Any plant small or large that will employ local people is plus for the economy of Grayling and Crawford County...as the new companies move in we wish them well and hope for a longevity such as Bear Archery had here...

It was brought to our attention last week when a lady visited the office and was inquiring if there was any place in town that could coordinate different functions that go on here. She brought up the fact that on the 23rd the ABWA fashion show is being held and at the same time there is a travelogue on exploring Norway...maybe some one can come up with some sort of idea to eliminate functions being held on the same date...we don't have the answers, but will welcome any suggestions...

Not knowing myself how we are going to vote on the amendments in the upcoming election, we're surely not going to try and tell someone else how to cast their ballot...on page two of Section B of this issue the announcement of the election and synopsis' of each of the proposals—appear...also on page 15 of Section A are the proposals as they appear on the ballot...

We received the following letter in the mail last week, and felt this is about the best way to answer the questions is through Our Corner because we felt the writer would read it again seeing as how it didn't hurt reading the first...first off is our using the second person so much...when we were a young fella we read a column each week by a person who used "I" and "Me" so much we wondered if he figured he was the ultimate as a writer, besides we dislike using I or me and if we're going to be sued they will have to find that second person we write about...

...to answer the second question on who the author of Our Corner is, we must state we are possibly remiss in not signing our name each week, and assuming everyone would connect our mug shot with the line in the mast head who is the editor and publisher of the Avalanche...for those who are also in the dark as to the author, my name is Howard D. Madsen, alias "Whitey", we hope this clears up our writers questions that appear below...

Editor:
Because my mother was born and raised in Frederic, my Grandmother subscribes to the Avalanche and has it sent to us in Arizona, to keep my mother abreast of the news.

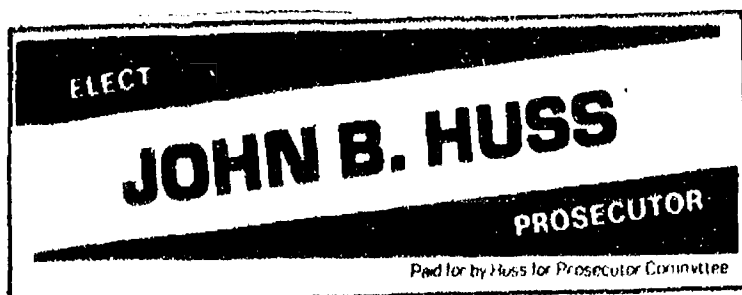

Since I am a high school journalist and planning on making a career of it, the Avalanche provides some interesting reading in contrast to the large Phoenix papers.

As I sat down and thumbed through the Oct. 2 issue, I came across the "Our Corner" column. I decided to read it, after all what could hurt. After reading the column I was inspired to write you and ask this question.

Who or what is the second person the author refers to when he says "We" "us" and "Our" corner? And for that matter who even writes the column? I hope in an upcoming issue I will find the answer, I would really like to know.

Sincerely,
Gary Thomas

THE OCCULT

The word "occult" comes from the Latin word "Occultus" which means "hidden, secret, dark, mysterious, concealed." Many people are unaware of the ancient history of the occult going back some 5,000 years. Many people do not realize the scope or seriousness of the occult. There are three main divisions including fortune-telling, Spiritism and Witchcraft.

The fortune-teller is described in Deut. 18:10. One of the devices of fortune-telling is called a Ouija Board. According to Archaeologists the use of the Ouija Board goes back 5,000 years. The Ouija Board is used to answer questions. Two people play the Ouija Board. Each player sits on opposite sides of the board while placing their fingers on the planchette. The planchette is a heart-shaped device with short legs which spells out the answers. Although people may move the planchette with their fingers, when it moves on its own you can rest assured there is actual contacts with demons.

Astrology is another form of fortune-telling and goes back to at least 3,000 B.C. and traced down through the Sumerians, Chaldeans, Babylonians, Greeks, Romans and until the 20th century. This field goes from the simple horoscope to cosmobiology. A comparison of the date of your birth with the alignment of the stars is supposed to determine your future.

Palimetry is the ancient art invented by the Babylonian priests in which they could examine the palm of your hand and see your future. This form of fortune-telling goes back at least 4,000 years.

Psychometric Clairvoyance is the ability to gain knowledge about a person by examining an object which belonged to that person. This art began with the Romans and has continued to our day.

All of the above are based upon the common Demonic foundation of Deuteronomy 18:10-12. "There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, Or a charmer, or a consultant with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. For all that do these things are an abomination unto the Lord: and because of these abominations the Lord thy God doth drive them out from before thee." (adv.)

Property Tax Amendments— If all Three Passes? It Could Be a Mess

By Ralph Ostling

If the three property tax proposals on the November ballot are all approved, Michigan taxpayers could receive property tax relief totalling nearly $3 billion, according to an analysis by the Office of Revenue and Tax Analysis.

However, if more than one amendment passes, questions arising from "conflicting" sections will undoubtedly be settled through the courts. Our constitution says that if conflicting amendments are approved, the one with the highest number of votes will prevail.

The Legislative-Executive plan, Proposal C, conflicts with Proposal D, the Tisch amendment, by stating that $7100 tax exemption on the assessed value of the home would not be implemented if assessments are cut below 50 percent, as provided by Tisch. The court may also need to interpret whether a provision in Proposal A (Smith-Bullard) for a statewide business property tax would have to be approved by a 60 percent vote of the people if both A and D pass.

Passage of A and D would provide taxpayers with a combined $2.9 billion benefit. But the state would be required to spend "a possibly unattainable percentage of remaining total revenue of education," according to the analysis.

The combination of A and C would result in $1.2 billion in property tax relief. Some $800 million would be replaced through a hike in the sales tax and the Legislature could raise the other $400 million through other means. Property owners wouldn't pay school operating costs and would also receive an exemption on the first $7100 of assessed value of their homes. Retired people over the age of 65 would be granted a $25,000 exemption.

Another potential area of conflict is a provision in D which limits property assessments to two percent a year, while C requires continued uniform tax assessments. And D's requirement that 60 percent of the people must approve any new tax or tax increase, appears to conflict with C's prohibition against eliminating the power of the state or municipality to tax.

It's important to remember that if more than one property tax proposal is approved, it may take months before the areas of conflict are sorted out. It may be advisable to vote only for the plan you like the best.

quarter and lost the ball by way of a fumble on one of them, a costly miscue that set up the second St. Ignace score.

Dahms passed to Pope for the final fifteen yards on the 34 yard march that was aided by a costly penalty against Grayling for roughing the passer. A 2-point conversion attempt failed but with only a minute left in the first period, St. Ignace had already tallied enough to claim the victory.

For the next three quarters the Vikes made a ballgame out of it, holding St. Ignace scoreless the rest of the way while the offensive unit tried to get things together.

Grayling moved the ball to the Saint 30 with 17 seconds remaining in the first half but two Junttila passes fell incomplete as time ran out.

A Viking drive early in the third quarter fizzled on the Saint 20 yard line when tailback Dan Lucksted was stopped short of a first down on a crucial 4th and one play, and the ball went over to St. Ignace.

Grayling threatened again early in the fourth quarter when Bill Fairbotham fell on a Saint fumble inside their ten yard line. But a high snap from center on a shotgun formation sailed high over Junttila's head and he had to scramble to recover it on the Saint 31. The threat ended for good when Junttila's next pass was picked off by an alert St. Ignace defensive back.

Grayling's only score of the night came on a 43 yard TD pass from Junttila, his only completion of the game, to Dan Lucksted, who made some nifty moves past two St. Ignace defenders on his way to the end-zone. The PAT was no good and the Vikes had narrowed the gap to 13-6 but with only 1:32 left in the contest.

The Vikes had yet another opportunity though when the defense held and Grayling got the ball back with only 40 seconds remaining. But two incompletions and a St. Ignace interception moments later slammed the door and bolted it on the Vikes.

Massive Communications Campaign Launched

McDonnell Douglas Corporation is launching a multimillion dollar communications campaign aimed at correcting unwarranted damage to the reputation of its DC-10 jetliner.

Charles "Pete" Conrad, the former lunar astronaut and now a company marketing executive, will serve as its principal spokesman. A major component of the campaign is the first network television advertising ever undertaken by the St. Louis-based aerospace firm.

The campaign's objective is to make it more widely known that the DC-10, after investigations to which few aircraft have ever been subjected, has been proved by leading technical experts to be a well-designed, dependable aircraft with an excellent service record. The investigations were conducted in the aftermath of a DC-10 crash at Chicago on May 25, 1979.

Sanford N. McDonnell, president and chief executive officer, said "there is no longer any reason for anyone to question the DC-10's airworthiness and dependability."

"It has been tested and researched and examined as no other aircraft ever has been, and as a result has been conclusively vindicated. Data to support my statements is readily accessible at the Federal Aviation Administration and National Transportation Safety Board."

He said the new campaign was developed in response to recurrent — albeit unjustified — questions about the aircraft's safety.

A booklet titled "The DC-10 — A Special Report" has been prepared for distribution to journalists, the travel industry and the general public during the communications campaign. Newspaper and magazine advertisements will invite readers seeking information about the DC-10 to write for free copies to: McDonnell Douglas, Box 14526, St. Louis, MO 63178.

The booklet raises often-heard questions about the DC-10 — questions for example about the cause of the Chicago accident, the grounding of the DC-10 fleet after the accident, the aircraft's design and service record — and presents answers based on the findings of official investigators.

DC-10 spokesman Conrad, a former Navy test pilot and astronaut who traveled to the moon as a member of the Apollo 12 mission, is marketing vice president of the corporation's Douglas Aircraft Company division, which produces the DC-10.

He was chosen as spokesman on the basis of his strong personal confidence in the airliner and his qualifications to make informed professional judgments about aircraft. He has a degree in aeronautical engineering from Princeton University and is a fellow of the American Astronautical Society, the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics, and the Society of Experimental Test Pilots. In June of this year he was selected for induction into the Aviation Hall of Fame at Dayton, Ohio.

In his career he has received two NASA Distinguished Service Medals, two NASA Exceptional Service Medals, two Navy Distinguished Service Medals, the Collier and Harmon trophies, the Yuri Gagarin Gold Space Medal, and the Congressional Space Medal of Honor.

"As one who has been richly honored in his lifetime by the international aerospace community, I feel a deep sense of responsibility to that community," Conrad said recently. "I would not work for a company that did not uphold the highest standards of aerospace excellence. And I know, having traveled 17 million miles in craft built by McDonnell Douglas, that it is an organization with standards second to none."

"I would also never endorse an airplane in which I did not have absolute confidence. It is a pleasure to have the opportunity to endorse the DC-10."

God grants liberty only to those who love it and are always ready to guard and defend it.

AAA Warns Drivers on Time Change

Sixty-one percent of Michigan traffic deaths occurred in non-daylight hours last year and Automobile Club of Michigan reminds motorists to be extra alert when darkness arrives one hour earlier at 2 a.m. Sunday (Oct. 28) as Michigan goes to Eastern Standard Time.

State police records show that 1,011 of the 1,662 traffic fatalities and, similarly, 217 (or 69 percent) of the 316 pedestrian accidents occurred between dusk and dawn last year.

Robert V. Cullen, Auto Club Safety and Traffic Engineering manager, urges motorists to help reduce traffic deaths by observing these rules:

- Watch for signs of youths at play, including dogs and parked bicycles and be especially wary on streets near playgrounds.
 - Do not look directly into coming headlights. Focus on the center of the traffic lane, keeping oncoming lights in peripheral vision.
 - Keep windows clean, windshield washer solvent reservoirs filled and lights working to ensure maximum visibility.
- Cullen added that parents should take extra care to safeguard their children. "Help children be visible to motorists by putting reflective tape on their jackets, lunch boxes and bicycles and by dressing them in bright colored clothing," he suggested.

Furthermore, Cullen urged adults to teach children these traffic rules:

- Always use sidewalks, when available, or walk on the shoulder facing traffic.
- Bicyclists should ride with the traffic flow on the edge of the road and be sure reflectors and lights are working properly.

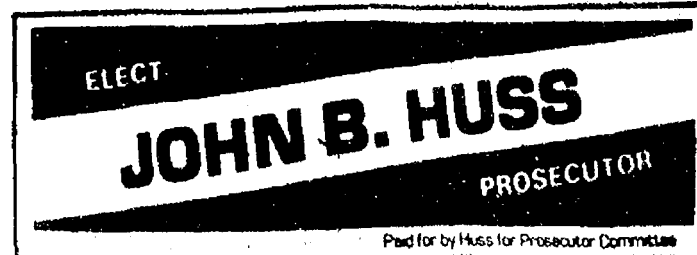

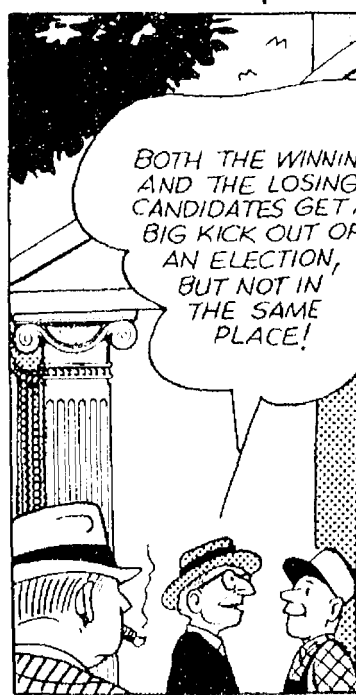

Michigan Lottery Sales and Profits Mark New Record Highs

For the eighth year in a row the Bureau of State Lottery announced today it has set new sales and profit records. During Fiscal Year 1980 (October 1, 1979, through September 30, 1980) the Lottery sold more than $483 million in tickets, paid out nearly $238 million in prizes, and contributed over $215 million to the State General Fund. These figures represent a 17.7 percent increase in ticket sales, an 18.9 percent growth in prizes awarded, and a 21.3 percent jump in General Fund monies over Fiscal Year 1979.

Accumulated lottery sales since November 1972 now total over $2 billion. Players have won over $1 billion in prizes, and the State has benefited from $940 million in additional revenue which has been used to support education, social services, health and medical programs, and numerous other state services.

Lottery Commissioner, William M. Nugent, said, "We are fortunate to have three enjoyable and successful lottery games. Our most popular game, the 'Daily,' had a 30 percent sales growth this year. 'Instant' games continue to be a strong part of our marketing program. Sales were $4.5 million ahead of last year. We

Junior Alpine Racing Program

John A. Huss of Grayling has been notified that he has been advanced to the ELITE group of Region III of the Central Division of the United States Ski Association for the 1980-81 season. Huss, pictured above competing in a Region III Select race in February, 1980, was moved up based upon his performance in the SELECT races held during the 1979-80 racing season.

The 16 year old skier, son of Sharon and John Huss and a Grayling High School Junior was a member of the Viking Ski Team during the 1979-80 high school season.

The primary purpose of the Junior Alpine Program of the United States Ski Association is to develop racing competitors. The top skiers in the ELITE group are eligible to qualify for the Central Division "A" Team and from there can move on to the Junior National Team and finally the U.S. National Team which participates in the World Cup and Olympic competition.

Second "Making Ends Meet" Series Offered

One dollar may not purchase much these days but it can buy a wealth of information that can help your family cut down expenses.

"Making Ends Meet: Volume 2," a newsletter series to help families survive the financial challenges caused by inflation and unemployment, will soon be available from Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service Offices throughout Michigan. These newsletters will contain practical ideas for easing the squeeze on family finances in the areas of clothing, foods, and energy for home heating and transportation. They will be mailed out monthly for six months beginning in October—all for only $1.

Three issues will give ideas for feeding your family well on a limited food budget. You'll learn when homemade foods are more economical than convenience foods, how to start a food buying club and other hints for stretching food dollars.

How to save money and still meet your family's clothing needs will be covered in a fourth issue.

The newsletter about energy will provide a do-it-yourself home energy audit that you can use in determining how to save money on home heating costs.

Fix-it-yourself auto maintenance and repairs to help your car get the best possible mileage per liter of fuel will be covered in the issue on energy and transportation.

"Making Ends Meet: Volume 2" was developed in response to requests from the 6,500 families who subscribed to the first "Making Ends Meet" series offered earlier this year.

To subscribe to "Making Ends Meet: Volume 2," call Merrily Lacasse, Extension Home Economist, Roscommon County, 275-5043; Crawford County, 348-5123; and Oscoda County, 826-3280 by September 30, 1980. The cost is only $1 for all six issues.

News of Good Things Growing...

The cabbage clan—brussels sprouts, cauliflower, broccoli and what is commonly called cabbage—has some strong 'family' ties in Michigan—the state where good things are growing. The clan is being harvested from now through October.

Our state's growers produce the fifth largest cauliflower crop in the nation and ninth largest cabbage crop, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Farmers marketed six million pounds of cauliflower in 1979, a 73 percent increase over the previous year, worth more than $1.5 million at the farm gate. About 4,000 acres of farmland were harvested to produce an estimated 50 million pounds of cabbage for fresh market and processing last year, valued at $3.1 million. (Although brussels sprouts and broccoli are grown in Michigan, statistics are unavailable.)

Cauliflower and cabbage acreage is fairly stable each year and located primarily in Allegan, Macomb, Monroe, St. Clair and Bay counties. As with most crops, production depends on weather and harvest conditions.

Versatility is one of this clan's claims to fame. Raw cauliflower and broccoli have gained in popularity for serving with salad dressings and dips. They can also be cooked and combined with your favorite cheese sauce, topped with buttered bread crumbs and grated Parmesan cheese, or sauteed in butter with almonds.

Favorite cabbage dishes include coleslaw, sauerkraut and New England boiled dinner. Stuffed cabbage leaves are also favorites. To prepare, parboil cabbage leaves until flexible, drain and fill with cheese combined with a vegetable, mushroom or bread stuffing mixture. Fold sides in and roll up from the stem end. To prepare a main dish, add ground or corned beef, ham, turkey or chicken to this stuffing mixture and simmer stuffed leaves in fresh tomato sauce.

More bananas are eaten throughout the world than any other fruit.

In fact, after milk, bananas are the most widely-consumed ready-to-eat food on earth.

Americans eat an average of 18½ pounds of the fruit each year and West Coast residents consume more than 25 pounds per person.

The popular banana, however, is very sensitive to temperature. If refrigerated whole, the ripening process will stop and the banana peel will darken.

If you have a lot of bananas at the state of ripeness you prefer, they can be refrigerated for a few days to keep them at that stage.

While the skin will turn black, the fruit inside will stay attractive.

If you're caught with a surplus of bananas, let them ripen naturally, then mash them, add a little lemon juice to prevent darkening and freeze in air-tight containers. They can then be used later for baking.

THREE BEARS KILLED ILLEGALLY—Jim Chapman (left), DNR Area Law Supervisor, and Conservation Officer Dave Douglas survey the three bear that were killed illegally in Alpena County September 18. Five Detroit-area men have pleaded guilty and received fines, court costs, and restitution charges amounting to over $1,500. Persons having information about fish and game law violations should call the Department of Natural Resources toll-free hot line number 1-800-292-7800.

Campaign Aimed at Stopping Poaching

Lansing—The Department of Natural Resources has launched a major law enforcement effort aimed at stopping poaching of fish and game.

Entitled "Report All Poaching" or RAP, the three-year campaign is being financed by a 25-cent fee attached by the Legislature this spring to all hunting and fishing licenses and stamps, except those sold to senior citizens and the public access stamp.

The surcharge is expected to bring in $700,000 each year during the three-year campaign period.

Officials of the DNR and the Michigan United Conservation Clubs have mapped a three-part strategy, which includes formation of a special investigative section of experienced conservation officers, a reward program for reports leading to the arrest and prosecution of poachers, and an intensive educational program to combat poaching.

Frank Opolka, DNR Law Division Chief, says the program will provide everyone an opportunity to help protect our natural resources.

"We can only eliminate poaching with the public's support," he says. "Our success will depend heavily on the cooperation we get from not only hunters and anglers, but from the non-hunting and fishing public as well."

To encourage that public cooperation, the DNR has established a toll-free 24-hour law enforcement hotline, 1-800-292-7800, for the public to call when they have any information on a fish or game law violation.

Opolka says a new law enforcement section in his division is now being formed that will concentrate exclusively on poaching.

That section is expected to be fully operational by October 1. It will be composed of a supervisor and two other officers, who will be stationed in Lansing, but will be available to travel statewide to follow up on poaching complaints; and seven special investigators, two stationed in the Upper Peninsula, two in northern lower Michigan, and three in the southern part of the state.

"These special investigators are being chosen from the ranks of our most experienced conservation officers," he says. "However, their posts will not be left vacant. Their positions will be filled by recruit officers now in training."

The RAP program will also focus on a rewards system for information that results in the arrest and prosecution of poachers.

The educational part of the RAP campaign includes radio and television spots, presentation of special programs before sportsmen's clubs, and the distribution of bumper stickers, posters and patches.

Posters urging citizens to report poachers will be displayed at stores that sell hunting and fishing licenses, at DNR and highway information centers, DNR regional and district offices and state parks.

Bumper stickers bearing the RAP message will be available to the public at those locations in late October or early November.

Patches bearing the "Report All Poaching" logo will be given to successful deer hunters at DNR checkpoint stations during deer season.

"Through each of these three program areas—enforcement, rewards, and public education—we hope to dramatically decrease the amount of poaching now going on in Michigan," Opolka says. "If we are successful, a new and deeper respect for our state's natural resources will result. And misuse of those resources by a minority of thoughtless and uncaring individuals will come to an end."

IN APPRECIATION

We would like to take this opportunity to express our appreciation to our many friends and relatives, as well as Dr. Henig, the nurses and the hospital employees, they were so kind and helpful during Bill's illness and at his death. It means so very much to have so many people caring for Bill. He truly appreciated as we did all those who remembered him while he was in the hospital.

It is at times like this when friends and relatives mean so very much. Words cannot adequately express our true feelings. All we can say is "Thank you for caring." We would also like to thank the members of the Grayling Fire Department for remembering Bill both during his illness and at his death. It has been so many years since he left the department, yet they still remember him. We are grateful to those members who served as pallbearers, we are sure Bill would truly have been pleased. We would also like to thank Rev. Haskel, Fr. Ivandic & Fr. Rabior for their spiritual help, the ladies of St. John Lutheran Church and St. Mary's church for the wonderful meal following the service, as well as those who brought dishes to our home. Many thanks to all of you and may God Bless You.

A special thanks to Dog-gone of WGRY who let the world know my family was looking for me for the last three months. To Crawford County Animal Control officers who no matter how many times my owner's called to inquire if I had been found were always polite & never impatient. To Larry & Joan's (the I Forgot Store) for all their help. To Pat Madsen & her mother who although having many problems of their own to deal with took time to call friends & neighbors to tell them I might be lost in their area & to watch for me. And a special thanks to Margaret Chappell of Ken Mar, a grand lady, without whose aid this reunion would not have been possible. Thank you, thank you, it's good to be home.

It's a Fake ... It's a Lie ... It's a Phoney!
TISCH II WILL COST—NOT CUT

You can't afford to have this proposal pass! It would mean:

- You will lose deductions on your federal income tax returns, and the extra tax dollars you send to Washington will be returned to other states, not Michigan.
- If you're a senior citizen, you will lose one dollar of rebate for every dollar of property tax reduction.
- If you want to send your kids to college, you will find that tuition at state universities is doubled or tripled.
- If you rent, you won't get any break because of the property tax reduction your landlord receives.
- Existing circuit breaker property tax rebates will be cut.
- Vital state services will be slashed. Even if voters wanted these services back, they could not be restored for two years.
- State government will be run by a minority.

Paid for by CAFT-COPE

You would be the loser if Tisch II passed ... but there would be some winners. Tax cuts would go to corporations, big property owners and special interests ... NOT TO YOU.

Sunshine on Energy

By DAVID COHEN

Oil company executives openly acknowledge that the public doesn't believe them about fuel shortages. Consumers are angered by rising prices. The Carter Administration has moved back and forth with uncertain direction on the energy issue, alternately attacking Congress, consumers, and the oil industry. Congress has refused to deal with the energy problem in any serious way. And the newly-formed Department of Energy completed its first year behind "closed doors."

The DOE leads all federal agencies in the number of freedom of information requests it denies. Sixty percent of all requests for information the DOE received in its first year of operation were partially or fully denied, according to a recent Common Cause study. Seventy-five percent of those denials that were appealed were reversed at least to some extent. If a judge's decisions were reversed three-quarters of the time, that judge would be viewed as being ignorant of the law. The Energy Department is plainly flouting the freedom of information law. DOE has other bad secret habits. It withholds from the public almost three-quarters of the raw data it collects from energy reports.

Some special interests do get inside access to information that is refused the public. In a recent investigation of the Energy Department, the newly created independent Inspector General (IG)—the DOE office that blows the whistle on department fraud and abuse—found that the Energy Department provided confidential information to an oil industry trade association lobbyist before releasing this information to the public. The IG concluded that the Energy Department had "maintained a double standard of access to information" that favored the American Petroleum Institute.

President Carter and the Congress ought to take the IG report seriously by insisting on adequate staff for the Inspector General so that the large scale fraud and abuse that the IG says is "now undetected, unprevented, and unpunished" stops immediately.

How can policies be sensibly evaluated or issues fairly discussed if vital information is locked up or oil and gas interests get favored treatment by the Department?

How do we reduce our growing dependence on foreign oil imports, increase our supplies, accept conservation practices and develop alternative energy resources? How do we muster the kind of public support and national commitment required to give serious solutions a chance? The answers are not easy. But one thing is certain. The Department of Energy must end its pro-secrecy policy. What cannot be done administratively should be done by Congressional action. Whether it is crude oil stocks, uranium resources, or other matters, the public, Congress and other sectors of the federal government have a right to know what is behind the information and to make sure fraud is stopped.

Americans are historically selfless in times of crisis. But no one is going to sacrifice in ignorance.

Dean J. Morford
1304 E. Houghton
Houghton, MI 49931

To the Voters of Crawford County;

I am a Michigan Tech. student and a resident of Crawford County. I would like to point out one of the many aspects of the Tisch tax cut Proposal 'D', that of its effect on the Colleges and Universities of the State of Michigan.

A joint statement issued by the Presidents' Council of State Colleges and Universities with the Association of Independent Colleges and Universities of Michigan reads in part:

"Our analysis leads to the unavoidable conclusion that the Tisch Proposal, if adopted, would be devastating for all of Michigan's colleges and universities."

"The Proposal if adopted at the 1980 general election would: 1) Result in anywhere from a 50% reduction to total elimination of state support for public and private higher education. 2) Require tuition rates at public institutions to be 'doubled or tripled,' while at the same time reducing or eliminating student financial aid programs at the state level. 3) Invoke the 'very real possibility' that a number of colleges and universities would be forced to close."

As you can see Tisch proposal would make the cost of attending college prohibitively high for a middle class student who depends on State Financial Aid to pay tuition. Many students would find the cost burden to hard to bear and would be forced to leave school to enter the already depressed job market. This would not only increase unemployment but would, in the long run, drastically reduce the number of educated engineers and teachers that this State's industry requires to improve the economy.

I would encourage each voter to carefully consider ALL of the consequences of the Tisch Tax Proposal "D" before casting his or her ballot. If you have any questions or comments about this letter please feel free to contact me. Thank You.

Sincerely Yours,
Dean J. Morford

Grayling Resident Honored at Surprise Party

by Willie Cusick

Ethel Parkinson, 302 Spruce St., was honored at a surprise birthday party, Saturday evening, at the Shoppenagon Hotel, by over forty friends, relatives and fellow employees.

Mrs. Parkinson, the chef at the Shoppenagon, started working at the hotel in 1944, thirty-six years ago, when it was owned by Mrs. Thomas Cassidy, she continued to work through the ownership, of Mr. Roy DeWitt, of Roscommon and is now continuing, under the ownership of Mr. and Mrs. Theron White. She started at an early age, as a dishwasher, and progressed to the position of head chef, which she has held for many years.

Helping for the plans, for the surprise event were her children, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kenyon (her daughter, Kay), Mr. and Mrs. Gary Parkinson, Grayling; daughter-in-law, Mrs. Kim Parkinson of Sandston, Va. and son Jeff, home from Michigan State.

Also, attending from out-of-town, were Mr. and Mrs. Theron White of Perrinton, Mich.; the hotel manager, Arnie Mauren and his wife Bernie were also present.

Friends and present employees, presented the honored guest, with gifts and a lovely cake.

Happy Birthday Ethel Mae, and many, many more!

clothing, shelter and medical attention to the victims of natural or man made disasters, and Third, to develop "Methods, Procedures and Systems" to prevent and mitigate the loss of human life and suffering resulting from disasters.

It is the result of this third mandate, that over the years, American Red Cross has created "Methods, Procedures, Systems, and Text Books, and Training Materials" to train individuals in: Basic First Aid, Standard First Aid, Advanced First Aid, Cardiac Pulmonary Resuscitation, Water Safety in Swimming, Rescue of Drowning Victims, Resuscitation of Drowning Victims, Safety in Canoeing, Safety in Motor Boating, Safety in Sail Boating and Safe Navigation.

The training aids, or tools, to accomplish this vast variety of special training programs is staggering. There are hundreds of detailed Trainer-Instructor Manuals, Text Books, Slide Presentations, Sound Movies, Instructor Chart Sets, working training tools such as manikins for teaching CPR for children as well as adults; splints, bandages, etc., for training in bone setting, splinting and bleeding control; in fact, almost every conceivable device imaginable is used to assure maximum effectiveness in training in these vital preventive life saving procedures.

Over 95% of the Safety Training performed in the U.S. today is done with American Red Cross training materials and equipment; all of which is made available to the general public. About 90% of all the training is done by Volunteer American Red Cross Instructors, on their own time and with no recompense!

The amount of such training is almost beyond belief! For example, in the fiscal year just ended June 30, 1980, in the Michigan Division of American Red Cross alone: 16,462 Volunteer Safety Instructors, held 24,086 training classes, which graduated 303,926 qualified Safety Trainees.

That is about one of every 25 residents of the Michigan Division was trained in some form of Red Cross Safety or Life Saving procedures last year!

In our County, in the same period, our eight qualified CPR and/or First Aid Instructors held 23 classes and 391 of our citizens qualified in CPR or First Aid. The Chairman of Crawford County Chapter/American Red Cross' Safety Services-Liwyn "Tony" Doremire-was certified this Spring as an American Red Cross First Aid and CPR "Instructor-Trainer", one of the very few in Northern Michigan. That means that Tony is now qualified to teach graduates of CPR or First Aid training to become "Instructors."

It takes about 10 cents of every dollar contributed to Red Cross in the U.S. to meet the Safety Program budget-about $18 million annually-but thousands and thousands of lives are saved annually in the US because there are such safety trained people around. And the benefits of the American Red Cross Safety Services are right here in Crawford County, too.

All Crawford County Volunteer Firemen, Ambulance Attendants, and Deputy Sheriffs and Police are trained in American Red Cross Advanced First Aid and CPR procedures and the County Ambulance Attendants have additional EMT (Emergency Medical Technician) training as well.

This is just one more reason why Red Cross deserves your financial support!

Won't you, please, HELP KEEP RED CROSS READY and send a check today to Crawford County Chapter/American Red Cross, RR 2, Box 2515, Grayling 49738, for your fair share of the $7123 needed to keep these vital Red Cross Humanitarian Services continuing in our community?

gets things done, and believe me, or ask the Senior Citizens of the Center, and they will tell you what Lora Gould has made of the Center and the joy and happiness and zest for living the Center has brought into their lives!

And, like everyone else who is a Leader, she has received her share of criticisms; and like all of us we have made mistakes of both omission and commission at the Center; but, to those of us who sit on the monthly Board Meetings, and share in the direction and supervision of the Center, it is obvious that every thinking person in Crawford County should be very, very, grateful for the Senior Citizen Center, and for the happiness and joy in living it has brought to our Parents and Grandparents.

A young man in his forties, with two teenage sons, was talking to me about whether the millage would pass. He was going to vote for it because he had five Senior relatives living at AuSagra Acres and sharing in the activities of the Center, including his Grandmother; but he was afraid too many of the voters would vote "No" just because they were dead set against any increase in taxes.

I asked him that when he and his wife-if they were lucky enough to live to be Seniors-were as old as his relatives at the Center, would they want to take part in the Center and enjoy such activities? Oh, you bet they wanted to still be here! They wanted it to continue to provide the activities that their Grandmother and Great Aunts and Uncles enjoyed so much.

So I suggested he talk to his friends at work, and his social friends, and tell them how his Grandmother and other relatives enjoyed and appreciated the Center, and to remind them that the proposed tax increase wouldn't exceed, on the average, the cost of a few six packs of beer per year!

Are our Parents and Grandparents who gave us our lives- THE GREATEST GIFT OF ALL-worth a few six packs of beer per year?

DON'T EVER FORGET! It was our Parents and Grandparents who made it possible for us to be borne into this wonderful world! The least we owe them is to make sure their "Golden Years" are as pleasant, joyful, and meaningful as possible!

NOVEMBER 4th IS THE DAY OF DECISION!

Don't FAIL your Parents and Grandparents! The Senior Citizens Center IS worth saving! VOTE, AND VOTE "YES" ON COUNTY PROPOSITION ONE--THE MILLAGE PROPOSAL FOR THE SENIORS!

Any rabbit can swim if it has to. But some, such as the marsh rabbit that inhabits the Atlantic and Gulf coastal states from Virginia to Alabama, take to water almost as readily as ducks. Marsh rabbits have been known to outswim dogs.

Middle School Basketball News

8th Grade: The Grayling 8th grade girls traveled to Houghton Lake last night with hopes of keeping their undefeated record intact. The "B" team again played a good defensive game in their 23-9 victory. So far this year they have given up an average of only 4 points per game. In the "A" game things were a little closer. Grayling was ahead by 2 at the half, by 3 at the end of the third quarter and leading by as much as five in the final quarter. The Vikes had to hold back a final rally by Houghton Lake in order to win by one point, 18-17. Grayling showed balance scoring as seven of the ten players on each team scored points. Both teams showed a lot of hustle in their victories. Their record now stands at nine wins and 0 losses.

Scoring for Grayling: "B" Team, Shari Chapin 4, Jodie Christman 4, Vickie Kea 4, Dawn Phelps 4, Heidi Derenzy 2, Shannon Krayes 2, Kris Laudenslager 3; "A" Team, Lisa Solomonson 4, Erin Jones 3, Tammi Pettit 3, Michelle Barber 2, Gina Medley 2, Lee Ann Lovell 2, Audra Small 2.

Jodie Christman and Dawn Phelps each had seven rebounds for the "B" team and Michelle Barber had eleven for the "A" team.

7th Grade: The seventh grade split a pair with Houghton Lake last night, with the "A" team winning 37-8 and the "B" team losing 18-4.

High scorer for the "B" team was Stacey Campbell with 4 points. Scoring for the "A" team was: Kim Springer 8, Lisa Spina 8 and Piper Ostrowski 6.

Congratulations to all the girls on the fine performances that they are turning in and the good sportsmanship that has been shown thus far this season.

Ducks Unlimited

Banquet A Great Success

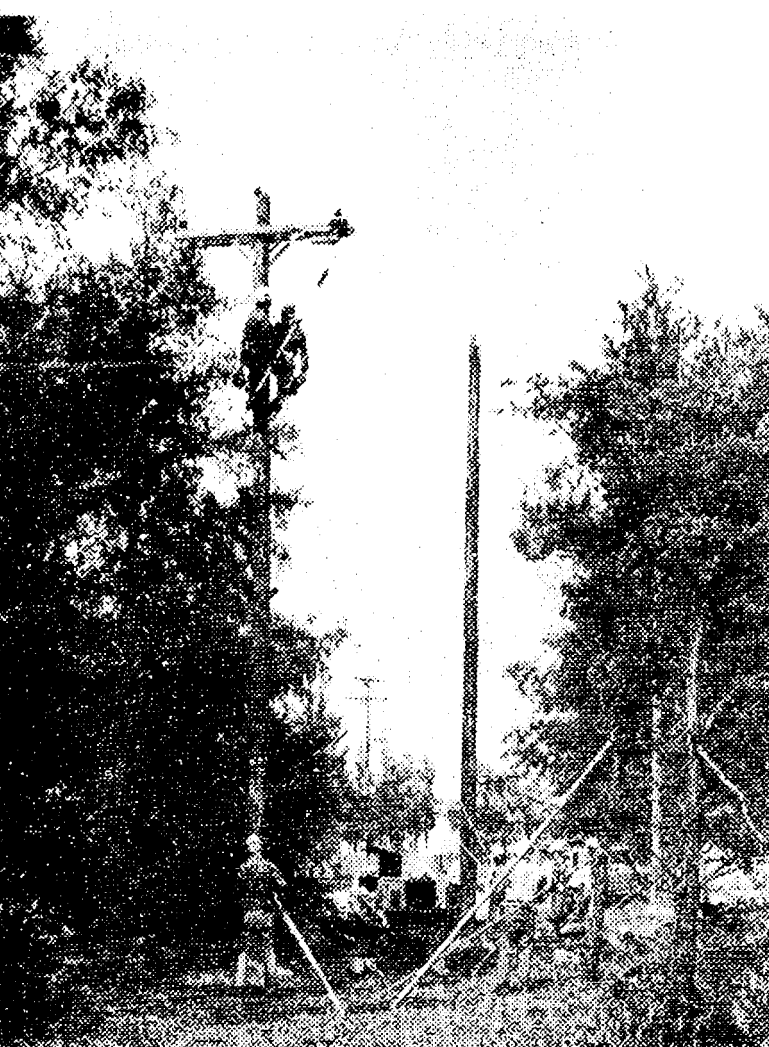

The Recent Manistee River Chapter Ducks Unlimited Banquet-Auction was an unqualified success. As a result of the membership dinner the chapter will forward a substantial donation to D.U. national headquarters in the amount of approximately $6,000. These funds are used to preserve and manage vast areas of wetlands in North America which are home to millions of birds and animals.

Some 125 persons, the majority of them new members, attended the dinner, which drew people from all around the Manistee River area. All enjoyed a great dinner with the auctions and drawings providing a lot of fun. Everyone in attendance won a door prize, some valued at $150. The auctions went well and many bidders were able to get some top quality prizes and artwork at a good buy. The real lucky people were those drawn in the drawings as they won some very nice artwork and "package" prizes, such as the hunting, fishing, and archery packages that were available. Ken Miller of Miller Saw-N-Lawn in Kalkaska, was the winner of the Grand Door Prize, a Remington model 788 with a 4x scope. Other big winners were Jake Snider of South Boardman who won the huge archery package which included a Bear "Brown Bear" compound bow, and a Baker tree stand & hand climber, from Kalkaska Sporting Goods. The 17' Michi-Craft canoe from Don's Marina was won by Rod Lawrence of Kalkaska.

The committee members of the Manistee River Chapter would like to thank all those who came to the banquet and all who helped with their contributions. These are the people that helped make the dinner so much fun and so successful. As a direct result of this the interest for next year's banquet has already been sparked. Some people have already asked to have a ticket reserved for them and some businessmen are already offering prizes and donations for next year. For more information about Ducks Unlimited and the Manistee River Chapter, contact Neil Rocky, their chairman, at 258-2926.

Top O' Mich. Linemen Attend School

Four linemen from Top O' Michigan Rural Electric Company in Boyne City recently attended a refresher course for linemen conducted by the Michigan Electric Cooperative Association. The one-week school, held in Grayling at Top O' Michigan's warehouse property, was attended by Terry Wilkinson of Millersburg, Charles Bauman of Boyne City, Jerry Northrop and Dennis Dempsey, both of Grayling.

The organization of the school was handled by Terry Walker, the Job Training and Safety Director for MECA. The school was conducted by personnel from co-ops throughout the state and electrical supply vendors. Linemen from co-ops and municipal systems throughout the state of Michigan were in attendance.

Assisting with the class from Top O' Michigan were Manager of Engineering and Operations, Dan Nelson, who instructed on power distribution systems; Larry Piper, Underground Foreman for the cooperative, who instructed on the installation of three-phase transformer banks; and Charles Theaker, South Area Foreman, who taught a segment on rope knots and splicing.

The course was designed to act as a refresher, as well as giving the linemen in attendance an opportunity to see and use the latest electrical maintenance and repair equipment available. The course covered a complete spectrum of subjects designed to help the linemen work more efficiently and safely in this dangerous profession.

Linemen demonstrate proficiency in changing an insulator using a "hot stick". In addition to classroom instructions, a great deal of time was spent learning by doing.

The last years book carried the theme of "Those Were The Days" on the cover and the game "scrabble" throughout the book. Mr. Kolb, advisor of the book had this to say. "The book is a good one. It took a lot of effort, but I think it was worth the wait." The 1980 Saga was edited by Diane Hatley. The book covers such spring and summer activities as girls track, outdoor education, baseball, awards assembly, Mexico trip, prom, baccalaureate, class night, and commencement. These are all activities which are not usually included in the yearbook. The 1981 yearbook is now under production with Patty Hill-editor, Arlene Monks-senior editor, Joelyn LaChappelle-junior editor, Nate Kolb-sophomore editor, and Felicia Galvani and Alice Matyn as freshman editors. Jenny Alef is busiess editor, Todd Pfaff is in charge of advertising and Yvonne Stefes is in charge of teaching staff. The Yearbook staff has been out in the community selling ads for the 1981 yearbook. If your business has not been contacted and you would like to advertise in our yearbook, please contact Chuck Kolb at 348-7641 ext. 31.

The annual senior magazine sale was a great success. The sale brought about $1900 for the senior class. Sue Prause brought in the most money. In return she received an AM-FM cassette player. Sue Diedrich came in second, winning a camera. In third place was Terry Fijolek winning a calculator.

The Avalanche—Your Want Ad Paper

News of Good Things Growing...

With the night of ghouls and goblins just around the corner, plan now for decorating your home and entertaining special friends. Halloween festivities can be unique, using a little imagination and many of the "good things growing in Michigan."

Carving a pumpkin is always fun for children and 'kids-at-heart.' Add character to your jack-o-lantern by pinning on brightly colored waxed leaves for hair, (shredded cabbage can give a pumpkin vintage age), sections of a Michigan apple for ears and a carrot for a nose.

Our state's growers have provided plentiful pumpkin supplies for the occasion, and the second largest apple harvest of the century is just being completed, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Colorful decorations for your table and front door can be made with Indian corn, small pumpkins, squash, acorns and dried cornstalks.

A wide selection of foods for a Halloween snack or an all-Michigan meal is available in our state. Agriculture is Michigan's second largest industry, producing more than 80 major commodities each year—from A to Z (apples to zucchini).

Cider and doughnuts is a favorite combination this time of year. Or try a Michigan wine and cheese-tasting party. For the youngsters, there's bobbing for apples, and many cookie, cake and candy recipes are available using Michigan foods.

An all-Michigan meal can begin with a variety of soups, such as bean, potato, vegetable, corn chowder, or cream of asparagus. Michigan-grown pork, chicken, beef or turkey can be used in a favorite entree recipe, and vegetables are grown in abundance. The 'fruit belt,' primarily in southwestern Michigan, gives us blueberries, cherries, grapes, peaches, pears, prune plums, raspberries, and strawberries, as well as apples. Although most of these fruits are harvested in summer, look for canned and frozen fruits from Michigan in your grocery store.

NOTICE

I will be running for the office of County Commissioner District 7, Beaver Creek and South Branch Townships. I lost the Democratic race in the primary by 16 votes and I feel the difference was not large enough to indicate the peoples choice. I will be handing out stickers at the polls on election day.

I work for General Telephone Company from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. My Democratic opposition has stated that I would not have time to fulfill the position properly.

General Telephone does allow time off from work for such positions and this is their statement of policy which is contrary to his opinion. "It is the policy of General Telephone Company of Michigan to encourage responsible individual citizenship on the part of all employees. The employee's active participation in community affairs, contributes to the community, strengthens and promotes the principle of citizen participation as a mainstay of the democratic process, the fulfillment of these objectives serves the best interest of the community and therefore of the company."

To run on stickers is hard, I need a lot of support. Please stop and pick up your sticker from the persons handing them out 100 feet away from the township halls.

I am a hard worker and it is time to get some work done on the county level. I know it is time for a change and I also know I can make those changes.

Telephone Rate Increase

All Michigan telephone customers who make long-distance calls to other locations within the state are affected by the recent rate increase approved by the Michigan Public Service Commission for Michigan Bell, according to General Telephone Company.

An across-the-board increase of 8.37 percent was effective for Michigan Bell at 12:01 a.m. Sunday, October 19. It applies to all intra-state long-distance service.

The increases for the first minute of a call range from a penny for "short haul" calls (up to 25 miles), two or three cents for "middle range" calls (26 to 100 miles) and four cents for longer distances. Additional minute rates were similarly adjusted.

Intra-state long-distance rates established for Michigan Bell, which handles nearly 90 percent of the long-distance calls placed, are applied to customers of all companies to ensure rate uniformity.

The Almanack

Carter to win a squeaker

RICHARD MILLIMAN

As the 1980 presidential contest strides toward its 11th hour, poll after poll indicate it will be an extremely close contest—with Ronald Reagan ahead.

That's the inescapable conclusion after perusing several polls which surfaced in early October: Reagan in a squeaker.

For example, the Associated Press reported a survey of what it called "political leaders, campaign strategists and state public opinion polls", and concluded that Mr. Reagan was the leader in 25 states with 236 electoral votes—just 34 short of the 270 vote majority needed for election.

President Carter, according to the AP survey, led in 11 states and the District of Columbia, with 131 electoral votes. That means another 171 electoral votes in 14 states are in the "not decided" category, and therefore, hold the margin of victory either way.

Michigan, incidentally, is listed in Mr. Reagan's camp by about four percentage points—but with 36 percent undecided. In other words, it's still up in the air.

The AP survey also indicated that Independent John Anderson is not in the lead anywhere, and, if he should be able to win any state, it most likely would be either Connecticut or Massachusetts. Mr. Anderson's unsettling presence, however, could be felt in some closely fought states, such as Illinois, where his vote total could tip the balance to either Mr. Carter or Mr. Reagan.

Other polls and surveys reported about the same time indicate roughly the same preferential status for Mr. Reagan as of the time of survey—but not with a majority of electoral votes within his grasp yet.

For example, a Washington Post state-by-state survey showed Mr. Reagan leading in 28 states with 13 electoral votes more than needed for election. In the Post survey, Mr. Carter was ahead in 14 states and the District of Columbia.

Newsweek Magazine, in its own survey, indicated Mr. Reagan ahead of Mr. Carter in 30 states with 321 electoral votes, or 51 more than needed to win; Mr. Carter was leading in this survey in 12 states and the District with 142 electoral votes.

Veteran poll taker Lou Harris, meanwhile, was out surveying voter attitudes among the candidates on how well they would do certain portions of their jobs.

He found by 45 to 27, those surveyed thought Mr. Reagan would do a better job of handling the economy than Mr. Carter; Mr. Anderson was favored by 16 percent.

As to which candidate "would inspire confidence in the White House", Mr. Reagan was ahead again with 43 percent, Mr. Carter had 29 percent and Mr. Anderson had 17 percent.

Reagan also was ahead on the question of candor—which candidate would "tell the people the tough facts" about inflation and energy. Reagan had 34 percent, while Carter and Anderson each had 28 percent.

Mr. Carter outpolled Mr. Reagan by a 44 to 25 percent margin on which one would "give more help to the elderly, the poor, minorities and the handicapped." And Mr. Reagan was felt by a 47-20 percent margin to be the candidate "most likely to get the U.S. into another war."

So, all in all—except for the war issue in the Harris poll—it looks like roses for Mr. Reagan at this point. He's ahead everywhere, well within reach of the magic margin of electoral votes needed for election, according to these indicators.

But for Reagan fans, there are several disturbing signs, in my opinion.

Reagan started out last spring way ahead of Carter, based more on Carter's rejection by voters than on Reagan's enthusiastic acceptance. Since then, Carter has slowly but steadily increased in the degree of acceptance by voters.

From my seat in the grandstands, Mr. Carter seems to be running a superb campaign, from a strictly political point of view, while Mr. Reagan's campaign has been more regular, more predictable, more prosaic, and therefore, less effective. The Carter television ads, for example, are outstanding examples for electronic politics, and far surpass Reagan's TV ads.

The longer the campaign goes, it seems to me, the stronger Carter becomes.

At a recent meeting of the University Press Club of Michigan in Ann Arbor, two eminent political researchers from the University of Michigan, Warren E. Miller and Michael W. Traugott, took a look at today's political scene.

They point out that the United States has a normal majority allegiance to the Democratic Party; there simply are more Democrats than Republicans in this country. For a Republican candidate to win, he must attract both independent and Democratic voters.

As time goes on in this campaign, they said, the decision of voters will turn on straight, traditional party issues—social programs, government spending, the economy, foreign affairs, and others—and the positions that have put the Democrats in a national majority will bring Democratic voters back home.

Traugott suggested election watchers should keep an eye on two indicators—the unemployment level and the consumer price index. As these stabilize and reduce, Democratic chances on November 4 increase.

Both Miller, who is the director of the respected Center for Political Studies at U of M, and Traugott, who is a research scientist at the Center and a newspaper columnist, thought that John Anderson would fail to carry a single state. They saw his vote total in the seven percent range.

As for the winner in November, they had the same prediction: Jimmy Carter in a squeaker.

I agree.

Local Senior Citizens Need Yes Vote on Proposition One

by Lora Gould, Director
Crawford County
Commission on Aging

November 4th is an important day for the senior citizens of Crawford County. This is the day when we are asking you to vote "Yes" on the Proposition I on the ballot giving 1/2 mill per 1,000 equalized valuation to the senior citizen center, to provide services and socialization to the persons 60 and over living in our county. Presently, we are serving 1,887 of your parents, grandparents or friends, "the greatest people in the world."

I have worked with the senior citizens for the past 16 years and truly enjoy it. I'm sure it has also helped me to accept my own aging with a better understanding and to realize that life doesn't end at 60. We have many, beautiful programs like the food program which provides a hot well balanced nutritional meal five days a week at noon as well as two evenings a week. This is a fantastic program. When we eat a well balanced meal our health and vitality is much better. We also deliver meals to the home-bound. The Homemaker Program (our most costly program), with five homemakers providing in home services enables elderly persons with handicaps or those just returning from the hospital to stay at home saving hospital and nursing home costs plus the "real benefit" which is making the person much happier to be in his or her home.

The Friendly Visitor, the Telephone Reassurance, the Health Programs, the Discount Cards, Information and Referral, help with Medicare forms, tax rebates, etc. are all good worthwhile programs and provide assistance and a sense of well being to our seniors, but to me, the greatest single program we have is socialization for the senior citizens. If you are a widow or widower and all alone, you are "living single in a world built for two"...think about it! Where can older citizens in Crawford County have a place to go to get involved and really feel wanted and needed and share a cup of coffee or a meal and a few laughs and a good time.

Then there is the RSVP, the Retired Senior Volunteer Program, also a part of the Center's program where our Senior Citizens have donated 24,500 "free" hours of service this past year to the community in the schools, youth camps, Hartwick Pines, the Center and the Historical Museum just to name a few. Here, the senior is serving the community and has a feeling of pride and being needed.

We have satellites where we take a program to the outlying area and of course, our Outreach ladies who work in the outlying area. Eva Hulbert in Frederic and Maple Forest and

Volunteers

Volunteers are playing an increasingly vital role in the whole education picture. They improve instruction by more individual help to students under supervision of classroom teacher, increase school/community relations, enrich curriculum by their experiences and hobbies, help close the "generation gap" by providing more opportunities for children and adults to exchange ideas.

Several volunteers are busy helping this year in many areas in our elementary schools. Tutoring children in remedial reading, helping in the lunchroom, playground supervision and helping classroom teachers are some examples of ways volunteers are helping. The reading room is still "short handed." If you have one morning a week you would like to share...there is a place for you to help. Call the Crawford AuSable School Central Office, 348-7641 ext. 52, today. We are waiting to explain the Volunteer Aide Program to YOU.

Maxine McIntosh in Beaver Creek and South Branch.

We feel we have an outstanding program to serve all those in our county 60 years of age and older.

We feel confident that you will want to help our seniors have a fun filled life for as long as they are able, to help them to really be alive as long as they live.

Our staff is very kind, conscientious and dedicated to serving and helping our senior citizens where needed and above all they joke and have fun with each one of them. Have you visited with a senior citizen lately? They can't wait to tell you how much fun that Mystery Trip was and where they went or the grand time they had at the Fiddlers Jamboree or the last party. They are important people now. They have a life of their own, they aren't dependent on their children for every social outing. Let's keep them that way. Please vote "Yes" on Proposition I for the senior citizen millage, November 4th, so we will be able to keep our senior citizens active, and enjoying each and every day.

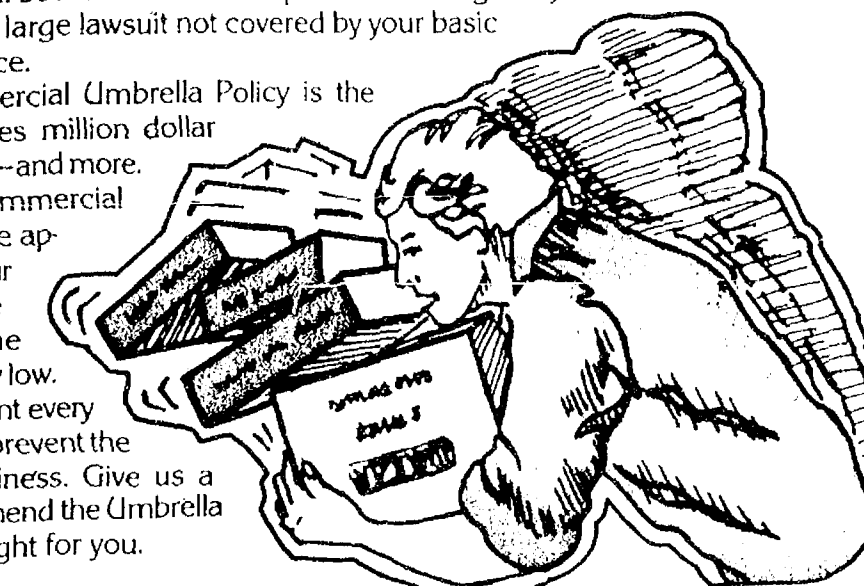

Vote "Yes", November 4th.

Local Sportsman's Club Aides Student

Schoolchildren in Grayling will be learning a great deal about conservation this school year, thanks to a contribution from the Grayling Sportsman's Club, Grayling.

In a continuing effort to promote conservation education, the Grayling Sportsman's Club—an affiliate of the Michigan United Conservation Clubs (MUCC)—has purchased Tracks magazine for use in Grayling Elementary School. Tracks is a monthly conservation reader produced by MUCC. It is aimed at upper elementary and junior high school readers, and seeks to give young students an understanding and appreciation of the natural world. Each month, Tracks focuses on basic conservation concepts, the habits and habitat of wildlife species, outdoor activities, nature lore, and much more.

Tracks is produced from September through May. It is available for $1.50 per student, which includes all nine issues and a teacher's guide each month. To order, write to Tracks, MUCC, Box 30235, Lansing, Mich. 48909. A minimum order of 10 per school is required.

Reverse Mortgage Plan Being Tried

By Weston A. Wood

Grayling—If you've never heard the term "reverse mortgage" it's time you did, because you're going to hear more of it. This is a new loan plan directed at older people, retired or soon to retire. If the initial experiments succeed, reverse mortgages will be widespread by the time most of you start thinking about how to live when the paychecks stop.

The reverse mortgage was developed to help retired people keep their homes, despite the fact that their income had dropped. The idea sounds great but it's not without financial risk. Here's how the plan works:

Assume that you're retired, own your own home, but are short on income. Your home is worth $60,000. In order to get at that money, however, you'd have to sell the house and move into a smaller house or apartment, which you don't want. Is there some other way of tapping that cash?

Enter the reverse mortgage. The lender gives you a mortgage on your home. But instead of giving you all the cash at once, he sends it in monthly amounts over a certain period of time. You use those loan proceeds as if they were extra income.

Once the entire sum is paid out, the monthly checks stop and you begin repaying the loan. If you can't afford the payments you sell your house (which has probably increased in value) and repay the entire mortgage all at once. Your gamble is that you'll then have enough money left over to pay for housing the rest of your life.

Reverse mortgages are being pioneered in the Cleveland, Ohio area by the Broadview Savings and Loan. Arlo M. Smith, Broadview's vice president, gives this example of how the money flows:

On a $60,000 home you could get a reverse mortgage of up to 80 percent, or $48,000, at 9 percent true interest. You can receive that $48,000 in monthly payments over five, seven, or 10-year payout. The five year payout gives the highest monthly check. But if your aim is to put off the day when you'll have to sell the house, you might prefer a 10-year payment.

Every month you get both a check and a bill. The check is for monthly portion of the mortgage loan. The bill is for interest on the loan proceeds you've already received, plus property taxes and insurance. The interest payment rises every month, but so does the check you receive.

On a five year payout, the amount of spendable extra money you gain from the loan every month averages around $553; on a seven-year payout, it's $365 on a 10-year payout, $211.

Broadview's brochures call these monthly checks "tax free income," which is misleading. "Technically, it's not income," Smith agrees. It's important to realize that you're getting those checks by taking a 30-year loan, which has to be repaid.

If you borrow $48,000, over five years, you'll owe the SandL a monthly payment of $470 starting in the sixth year. After a 10 year payout, the monthly payment would be $498. Depending on how much your home has gone up in value, the savings and loan might renew the loan for a little longer, but it's not guaranteed.

Here's the question you have to ask yourself: When you retire, do you really want to assume a large mortgage debt in order to pay expenses or finance travel? Especially if the only way you can pay the debt off is to sell your house? The proceeds from the loan will keep you in your home for a few years more. But when you finally sell, repay the mortgage and pay a capital gains tax, you may well net less cash than you would if you sold today—possibly quite a lot less. Will it be enough to pay for substitute housing?

You're gambling on the future trend in house prices. If values continue to rise rapidly, your cash position might be adequate after the sale. You'd be older, so a smaller lump sum could see you through. But if the value of your house doesn't increase enough, there could be trouble.

If you can't afford your home after retirement, you might do better by scaling down immediately, rather than over-spending your income and taking a loan to make up the deficit, but if staying in that house is more important than anything, and your willing to take the financial risks, a reverse mortgage is something to look at. At the present time this mortgage is not in the State of Michigan.

News of Good Things Growing...

Dry edible beans, among the good things growing in Michigan, are a delicious way to stretch food dollars. Bean soup, baked or barbecued beans, and pork and beans simmered in tomato sauce, all have one thing in common: They begin with Michigan navy pea beans.

Michigan is the largest bean-producing state in the nation. An estimated 686 million pounds of dry beans were harvested from 495,000 acres in 1979 in our state, the Bean Capitol of the World, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Bean farmers, primarily in the Thumb and Saginaw valley areas, produce 91 percent of all navy beans and one-third of all varieties of dry edible beans harvested in the U.S., including kidney, cranberry, pinto and black.

About 90 percent of our state's beans are purchased for canning, with the remainder packaged dried. So, whether you're eating out, using a can opener or cooking your own dry beans—more than likely you're enjoying Michigan beans.

Dry beans are an excellent source of protein, especially when combined with a vegetable protein such as corn or wheat. Beans also provide B vitamins, iron and calcium, are cholesterol free and high in fiber.

When shopping for dry beans, look for those natural in color, whole and uniform in size. Dry beans will keep for a year if stored properly in a cool dry dark area, in a sealed bag or a can with a tight cover.

For a guided tour of Michigan's "bean pot," send for a free copy of "A Cook's Tour" which includes 12 crop tours around the state, by writing the Michigan Department of Agriculture's Communications office, P.O. Box 30017, Lansing, 48909.

Jones-Rasmussen Vows Spoken

On Saturday, October 11, 1980, a candlelight double ring ceremony was performed uniting Tamara Sue Jones and Joel Lars Rasmussen, at St. Mary's Church. The three o'clock wedding was performed by Father William Rabior, pastor of St. Mary's and the bride's uncle, Reverend Thomas Halliday, from Ohio. Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Jones, of Bowling Green, Ohio, & Mr. and Mrs. John J. Rasmussen of Grayling.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She was wearing a floor length gown of selesia, with a blouson style top and a pinch-pleated skirt. Her pearl-sequined veil was secured by a Juliet-styled cap, and she carried an arrangement of silk flowers on a white satin fan. All of the flowers for the wedding, which were silk flowers, were done by the bride and the groom's sister, Mrs. Joy Bobenmoyer.

Mrs. Brandon Tubbs, of Arkansas, was matron of honor, who appeared in a floor length gown of forest green Quiana, with a chiffon leave patterned cape top. Bridesmaids were Miss Jodi Milton of Richmond, Mi.; Mrs. Patty Hanson, and Mrs. Joy Bobenmoyer, sister of the groom, of Grayling. They were attired identical to the matron of honor, except their dresses were a chocolate brown, and each girl carried a small bouquet of fall flowers.

Sara & Bethany Bobenmoyer, twin nieces of the groom were flower girls. They were attired in rust-colored dresses with small ivory flowers & accented with ivory ribbon & lace. They each carried wicker baskets with fall flowers.

Jason Rasmussen served his brother as best man & was wearing a forest green tux. Groomsmen were Brett Ginter, of Detroit, Tom Jones, brother of the bride, and John Rasmussen, brother of the groom. They all wore sandalwood tux's, matching the groom's tux.

Organist for the wedding was Miss Marion Matyn, of Grayling. Soloist was Mrs. Carol Money who sang, "You Light up my Life", during the candle-lighting ceremony. Also, at this time, long-stemmed red roses were presented to both mothers, by the bride & groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Jones wore a floor-length gown of blue-gray silk. Mrs. Rasmussen wore a long gown of mint green with a dark green jacket, for the marriage of her son. Both mothers wore corsages of red roses, accented with small white flowers.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at Auman's House of Catering & was attended by 250 guests. A buffet dinner was served, followed by dancing to music by the AuSable River Band.

The four-tiered wedding cake was made by Mrs. Martha Bancroft & was decorated with fall flowers. The groom's aunts, Mrs. Jan Cragg & Mrs. Julie Hinds cut the cake for the guests. Attending the guest book was Shelly Halliday, cousin of the bride.

The bride & groom are both graduates of Grayling High School & are employed in Grayling, where they will be making their home.

Out of town guests were from Houghton Lake, Roscommon, Lovells, Richmond, Detroit, Traverse City, Mt. Clemens, & Midland, Michigan. Also from parts of Ohio and Arkansas.

The couple will be honeymooning in Arkansas.

On Friday, October 10, 1980, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Rasmussen hosted a rehearsal dinner at Auman's House of Catering. (Photo by Carroll Wert)

Stick Trick

Damp weather may cause furniture drawers to stick. If this happens, try rubbing the bottom of the drawer which glides along the inside frame with soap or candlewax. It will also help if you rub the sides with sandpaper.

Experience — Impartial — Considerate

Many of you know Art Clough personally and have been a friend of his for a long while. He has been a resident of this County 51 years.

Art had the reputation of being considerate, and an impartial law enforcement official when he was your Sheriff through the years 1960-1971.

He felt then that all the people of the Community should be treated equally and with respect, and intends to carry out this same policy if elected "Your Sheriff".

Art needs your vote, you need his impartial law enforcement.

The word impartial is thrown around a lot in campaign promises, but may become missing in the actual administering of the law.

It is a very important factor in your life, and Art Clough intends to see that this promise is kept, to the best of his ability.

UP Girl Wins Tourism Scholarship

Bay City — Anna Marie McMahon, of Hancock, a student at Michigan Technological University, has won the 1980 Tourism Conservation scholarship award of the Harry L. Aldrich Foundation of Bay City.

The scholarship, unique in the United States, consists of a $400 grant to the winner, who must be a Michigan resident. The Foundation is a special group of Park Michigan Tourist Association members honoring the late Harry L. Aldrich, long-time Region II chief for the Michigan Department of Natural Resources.

The award is based on an essay submitted on the subject of the importance of tourism and conservation to Michigan. Students from three Michigan high schools and eight colleges and universities applied for the scholarship this year.

COOR Kickers Win State Championship

Special Olympians from the COOR area came back from the Michigan Special Olympics Soccer tournament in Saginaw last weekend with the first state championship ever won by a northern Michigan team. The COOR Kickers captured the honor by being crowned champions in Division IV of the thirteen team tournament. Another local team, the COOR Cowboys narrowly missed duplicating the Kickers' feat as they bowed out in the championship game of the prestigious Division I to Kent Occupational High School of Grand Rapids.

The Kickers opened the tournament with a 3 to 2 overtime victory over Grand Rapids Lincoln. Grayling's Pepper Gorten ended the sudden death battle with his second goal of the game. The state championship was then captured with a 4 to 1 win over the Midland Express. In that contest Pepper Gorten again led the COOR attack with 2 goals. Another Grayling player David Argue and Houghton Lake's Terry Ritter each scored a goal in the championship contest. Ricky Sieber proved to be one of the tournament's best goaltenders as he allowed just two goals in the event.

In Division I, the COOR Cowboys found themselves as runner-ups for the second straight year. The Cowboys started out with an easy 4 to 0 victory over Muskegon. Tony Greene of Roscommon led all scorers in the contest with 2 goals. Two Houghton Lake athletes, Mike Nelson and Rick Babcock tallied one goal each in the victory. Goalie J.J. Austin turned back 12 shots on the way to recording his second shut out of the year.

The championship game against Kent proved to be tougher going for the local squad. After a scoreless first half, the team from the furniture city finally broke through the tough Cowboy defense for the winning goal. The Kent goal was the first point given up by the Cowboys defense in three games this year.

The performances of the Cowboys and Kickers capped off the most successful year ever for Special Olympics soccer in Area 4. In all, 36 Special Olympians representing Grayling Elementary, Prudenville School, West Branch, Roscommon H.S., Houghton Lake M.S. and COOR Pioneer Hills competed on the soccer teams or in the skills competition.

Participants from Crawford County included: Frank Schoen, Bill Small, Rick Armstrong, Chris Wylie, Bob Rollins, Angie Piehl and Joe Krietner.

Duck Hunters Beware
Last Thursday some hunters came down the AuSable River and killed 7 of my domesticated Mallard ducks, 4 drakes and 3 hens. 3 other hens came home one badly hurt. These ducks do not fly and the hunters should have realized that as soon as they started firing at them. The 3 bright colored drakes were born this last June. The other one was not yet in his full color as he was an older drake. I have had him for four years along with some of the hens.

We were given these ducks and since I have had them I've trained them to come in every night so when they had small ones they would bring the young ones in every night. Now that their mate is gone things have changed. 2 of the hens won't come in. The one that was hurt because she can hardly walk and the other hen won't leave her. People may think that ducks are dumb and don't have feelings but I know different, I've seen the devotion they can have for each other.

I hope that the ones that shot them read this and wonder how they would feel if they had a pet and someone would so the same to their pet.

I kept these ducks because I enjoy them and it gives me something to do.

I really miss them.

One shot at an insulator can drop a city in its tracks.

I know, because I'm a Consumers Power lineman, and it's my job to search for the cause of a power failure. People who shoot out insulators forget that a single shot can bring down a house, a factory, a hospital or even an entire city. That's why Consumers Power offers substantial rewards for information resulting in either the arrest and arraignment, or the apprehension of persons responsible for damage to our property. So, if you have information concerning such an incident, please contact a local police agency or call Consumers Power.

Featured Vocalist and Seminar Speaker at Women Retreat

Skip Ross, who will be sharing the topic "The Kings Formula For Dynamic Living", and also will be featured solo artist, can be seen and heard at the 9th Annual Win-Some Retreat at Boyne Mountain Lodge on November 7th and 8th.

Skip Ross is a highly successful businessman who has devoted his time and talents to helping people. He is Vice President of Hansen Corporation, Crown Direct Distributor with Amway Corporation, President of All Faith Christian Missions, Founder of Agape Adventurers, and recently selected as one of the Outstanding Young Men of America for his attainment of excellence in his chosen profession. As a businessman, recording artist, and motivational speaker he has shared his talents with over 250,000 people in the past year. He has inspired countless numbers of businessmen, executives, married couples and parents to take a new look at themselves and their abilities.

The retreat's theme of "Today's World" will be further developed by two outstanding speakers and authors, Ann Kiemel and Bob Benson. Ann Kiemel from Boston, Mass., is one of America's most sought-after inspirational speakers. Through faith in Jesus Christ, the Lord of her life, this small, attractive woman achieves a stature and strength that is awesome. Early experiences in life convinced her that the world can be changed by "ordinary people" communicating on a one-to-one basis their faith in God and love of each other through Him. With childlike simplicity and sincerity, Ann shares her love for Jesus Christ, building bridges between herself and the people she meets. All three of her books, "I Love the Word Impossible," "It's Incredible" and "I'm Out to Change My World" are among the top ten best-sellers in the inspirational market.

Bob Benson from Hermitage, Tenn., has touched the lives of thousands of people as he speaks throughout the United States. Bob has been a music publisher, sound recording engineer, an ordained elder in the Church of the Nazarene and has pastored several churches in his denomination. Through his books "Laughter in the Walls", "Come Share the Being" and "Something's Going On Here", you will come to know yourself better and best of all, you will begin to see God in places you never saw Him before.

Reservations for the retreat must be in on or before Tuesday, October 28th 1980, to Win-Some Women, Box 503, Petoskey, Michigan 49770. More information, registration forms and banquet tickets may be obtained by contacting your local area coordinator, Beth Shepler 348-7491 or they may be picked up at Davis Jewelry.

The retreat is sponsored by the Neighborhood Bible Study classes in Petoskey.

Horn of Plenty

This great land of ours has been blessed with the riches of the earth and with the freedoms and rights to enjoy them. But does the mere ownership of these goods guarantee our happiness?

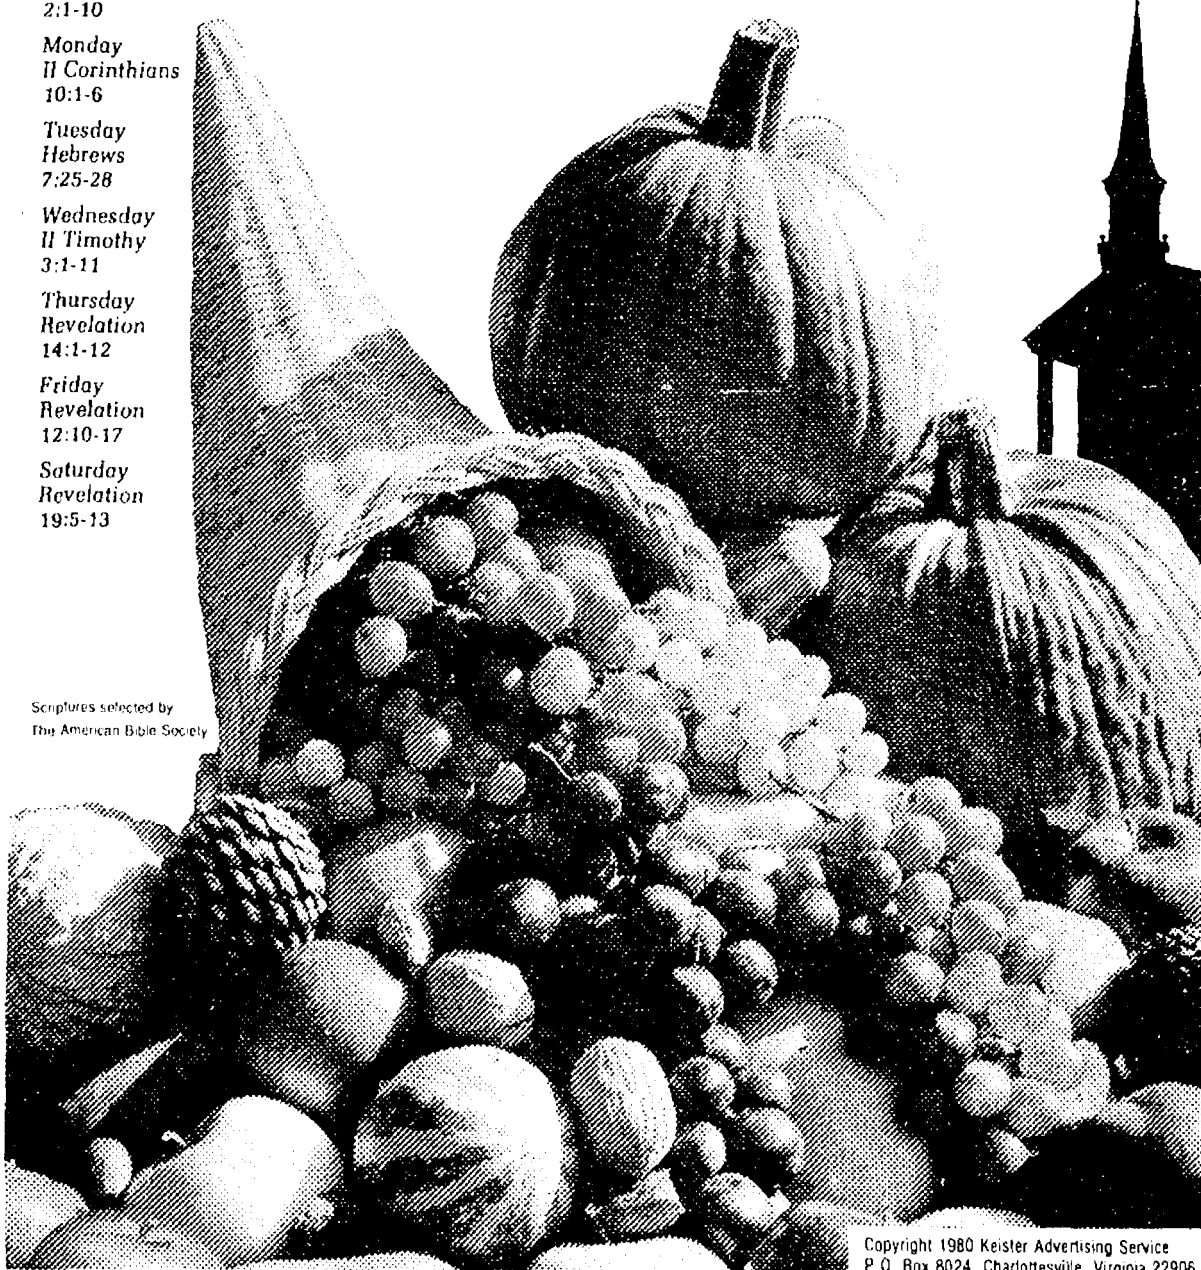

All of us have experienced a disappointment at finally possessing some much-desired article. After weeks and sometimes years of looking forward to it, we find that the actual ownership brings little pleasure.

Could the fault lie with the gift itself? No, apparently it is within ourselves. Our own attitudes, our own relationships, our own understanding have certainly much more to do with our final satisfaction.

How then are we to derive the greatest blessings from the goods which have been put at our disposal? The best place to begin is at your place of worship. Here, in a personal search for God and our own understanding of Him, we may achieve a spiritual harmony, which will bless our lives and those of our fellow men.

About The

Prosecutor's

Office

This is a summary of activity and expense in the Prosecutor's Office, beginning in 1973 with the opponent's last term, which ended in 1976, and continuing through Mr. Davis' term, which began in 1977. These facts and figures have been compiled from records of the Circuit Court, District Court, Prosecuting Attorney's Office and the County Clerk's Office.

COURT EXPENSES

Circuit Court Jury Fees		Circuit Court Witness and Subpoena Fees		District Court Jury Fees		District Court Witness and Subpoena Fees
1973-1976	$16,396.92		$3,504.46	1973-1976	$11,741.95		$7,844.94
1977-Present	16,184.25		2,320.60	1977-Present	3,628.30		5,842.05

Orders Entered	Funds Earned for County, After All Expenses
1976	0	$ 0.00
1977	56	9,628.00
1978	20	7,959.70
1979	29	8,164.39
Through 4/1980	16	4,330.94

These records show that Court costs are down and revenues are up, dramatically, in the past four years.

CONVICTIONS INCREASED

At the same time, the conviction rate for all classes of cases exceeds by two to three times what was accomplished during the opponent's last term. For example-

Felony Convictions		Felony Convictions
1973	14	1977	47
1974	24	1978	54
1975	17	1979	31
1976	23	1980, to date	32
TOTALS: 78		TOTALS: 164

AT THE BOTTOM LINE:

- Court costs are down
- Court and County revenues generated by the Prosecutor's Office are up
- Convictions have been increased substantially
